

Four Dreams of Light-bodies of the YHWH Warriors

by David Michael, info@glentivar.org

The night of January 11, 2012, I received 5 dreams one after the other. They are presented as follows:

First Dream: Human to Water Creature

In the first dream I saw a woman who had been romanced by an alien water species. I saw this male water creature and it had gills and webbed hands and feet but all else seemed very human. As I gazed upon the woman who was sleeping on a bed unclothed and uncovered, I noticed she began to take on the physical water characteristics of the male water species.

She looked up at me and said, "I am his DNA to him" which I understood to mean she loved him. Strange as this phrase may seem, it did describe what was happening to her in her changing from full human to a water breathing and swimming humanoid creature. I mused on this in the dream and then realized this is a 4th dimensional occurrence that is seldom seen occurring in the 3rd dimension. How could a person's DNA change while they are still living I wondered.

Triple Strand DNA

I then saw floating in the air a triple DNA helix. I then understood that humans are made up of many types of DNA and it is the third strand that activates what many consider to be 'junk' human DNA.

The fact is, our DNA is not static but can change as the third strand of DNA existing in the 4th dimension activates the so-called junk DNA in causing the human to change its form and adapt to a changing environment. This dream also supposes humans have been created in the combining of many DNA strands of many different creatures or species -perhaps referred to in the Scriptures as the 'sons of god.'

Second Dream: Light Body in Mongolia

In the second dream I found myself in what appeared to be a guerrilla training camp located high in the Himalayas with Mongolians seen everywhere I looked training for war. I was there in the camp with the task of teaching their leadership about the NWO in the end times and about the rise of the 7 kings and 10 kingdoms of the Holy Roman Empire.

They were very attentive as I spoke. I spoke of the need for 'human stealth fighters' and the leader immediately commanded his generals who were also listening to me to train his armies to become American Ninjas. He understood Russian so we were using an interpreter that translated English into Russian.

I finally was able to convince him that the needed fighters would be YHWH Warriors and not American Ninjas.

Third Dream: Light Bodies of the YHWH Warriors

In the third dream I again found myself high in the Himalayas among Mongolian guerrilla troupes now in a very large mess hall seating hundreds all eating.

I met a Buddhist monk who I recognized in the dream as the current Dali Lama and we began to chat. I told him I was a bishop and he was pleased to hear this. We sat down across from each other at a table and ordered noddles and began to eat and chat further about the world.

I was then suddenly run through with a Sabre through the back of the chair with the blade now seen in front of me over my bowl of noddles. I looked down and then I politely asked the assailant to remove the sword since it made eating difficult. He with trepidation complied and the pulled the long blade out of my back and found it had no blood on it nor did I feel any pain from the assault. I then continued to eat noodles and chat with the Dali Lama as if this event never occurred.

It would appear I was more light than matter in this situation where the weapons of the 3rd dimensional world could not harm me. Yet, I was able to eat and function fully in the 3rd dimensional world.

Forth Dream: Logs that Bend

In the 4th dream I found myself once again in the high mountains of the Himalayas and now in a very forested area near the top of a mountain. Before me was a large look out tower built of heavy logs that stood about 60' high from the ground.

I climbed to the top of the tower and held on tightly to the rail at the top of the tower and then leaped off of the tower without letting go of the top rail. As I flew down to the ground, the tower bent in half like a giant spring and provided a soft landing for me on the ground. Still holding the rail of the bent in half 60' tower with my feet now on the ground, I then jumped up and both I and the tower returned to its upright position. I did this a few times with some enjoyment.

The officers near the tower saw me doing this and asked how this was possible. I looked at them and said very matter of factually, "Even nature listens to the faithful of YHWH and obeys."

Fifth dream: I cannot share this dream at this time but I will sometime in the future. Sorry.

Thoughts

All five dreams are interrelated. They all reveal the need for YHWH Warriors to become more light than matter in the 3rd dimensional world in order to overcome future enemies. I do not claim to be invincible as I still bleed when I skin my knuckles.

This state of being as more spirit than material is for a time when the YHWH Warriors will be fighting very powerful beings or entities who are more spirit than flesh themselves.

Moses when he came down from the mountain after receiving the 10 Commandments was asked by the people of Israel to cover his face since he was so 'bright' it disturbed them. Moses never died a natural death, lost strength or his eyesight but was taken by YHWH and his body then hidden.

It can also be understood from the first dream that our DNA is not rigid or static and that there is a 3rd strand that science cannot see that activates the other two strands that can be seen. As we are in right relationships with those of higher spirituality, our 'junk' DNA can be activated and we may transform into what is needed for continued life. This state of light body (3rd DNA strand functioning as it should) comes when we live in total faith without fear and our motivation for doing all things is love. As the bible tells us, "Faith that worketh by love." Gal 5:6.

In addition from the first dream, when the Adamic man was created, YHWH said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." Gen 1:26. The 'us' and 'our' is thought to be referring to many species of creation that came together and provided their DNA for the Creation of Adam who would in due time with the coming of Y'Shua (Jesus) would become the priest-king of many species.

Some alien researchers suggest there were at least 24 different alien species brought together by YHWH in the gathering of DNA for the creation of the Adamic man species. By the Spirit with the right motivation, any of these DNA sections can be activated for us to adapt and function in changing environments.
