

Native American Origin: Prophecy-Vision

As I was beginning to fall asleep and praying on the night of March 1, 2008, I heard the words, "You are Native American." Immediately after hearing these words, I saw the word 'Ojibwe' in bold letters in my vision.

I do not know of the validity of this vision since I had been studying on the Native American people for the last few weeks. My dad has told me many times he thinks we are part Native American but I have found no evidence of such.

It may be there was a blood covenant that makes me a part of the Ojibwe tribe. My dad's family has been in the Americas since the 1640's first in Massachusetts and then New York where the Ojibwe lived. My mother's side also began in NY in the mid 1600's.

If it is true, I will seek to be reunited with my people as per the 10 February 2008 prophecy.

If true, such a uniting with Native people would represent a pre-existing 'blood' covenant between the Hebrew-Celt (my dominant origin) and the Native American as mandated in the 10 February 2008 prophecy.
