

Nazis Have it All: Dream-Vision

In the early morning of the 6th of September, 2015, I had a dream-vision. The night before, I had watched the Da Vinci Code again to study the video to see what I agreed with and what I did not as to its alleged facts concerning the Priory of Sion, the Opus Dei with brief mention of the Templars which is my hereditary association. I had read the book some years ago and remember some of the truths taught to me by the grand master of the Templars who took me under his wing for a season.

In the dream vision, I was partly awake and I distinctly both heard and saw the words, “The Nazis have it all!” This was in reference to the Da Vinci Code claims. I then saw a dark shadow in the background wearing a black Nazi SS uniform that seemed to be of the rank of general. I could not identify the face but he had dark hair and may have been Adolf Hitler.

As I was considering this dream vision still half asleep, I saw the emblem appear before me that was sent to me by a secret society that I understood to be a Rosicrucian symbol with the Swastika in the upper center of the symbol. I then realized the many secret societies around the world have now merged under a single Nazi leadership and that the Nazi agenda of world domination is the mode of operation for all societies as per the Nazi model proven effective during WW2.

This means the Opus Dei and the Priory of Sion are really allies and not enemies. It means there is yet another history that is mostly hidden that is the true history of YHWH that is not held by either of these groups or the Jesuit run Roman Catholic Church presided over by Pope Francis who is a Jesuit.

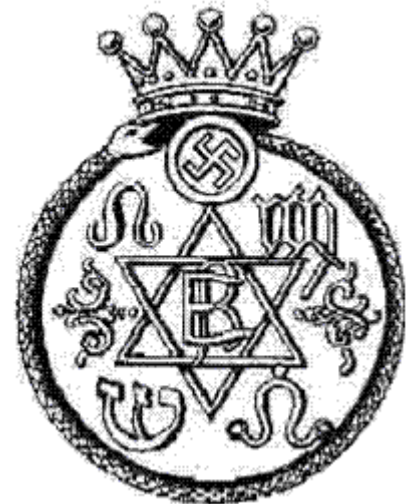

What is notable about the Nazi SS is their extreme passion to search out, find and possess all religious artifacts that historically were claimed to bring power to their owners if used correctly. Hitler believed strongly in unleashing the power of symbolic religious artifacts and sent his SS order of knights modeled after the Templars all over the world to collect these artifacts to then use them in rituals to bring greater power to the leadership and mission of the Third Reich. The ideal of possessing or controlling the Holy Grail (San Real – Holy Blood line), the Ark of the Covenant, the spear of Lionagies and other artifacts are of paramount importance to the Nazi and their allies.

In history at the end of WW2, the Nazis were never defeated only Germany was defeated. The Nazi SS and top rank officials along with Adolf Hitler fled to South America and Antarctica where they had secret bases. Some fled to America in the Phoenix project and became our CIA. America is now controlled by Nazi officials including the Bush family as the 'shadow government' in seeking to do away with the peoples rights secured by the US Constitution, Preamble and Bill of Rights.

For me the important artifacts are the Sword of Goliath and the Harps of David. Neither of these have been discovered or retrieved but I believe I know where they are. In another dream I did find the sword of Goliath and as I was picking it up from being partially buried in the ground, I was told by an angel, “The sword of Goliath for fighting the Nephilim.”

The harps of David are for communicating with the angels in battle to effectively guide them against the enemies of YHWH. I build Kinnor harps so this artifact is not necessary. Neither is the sword of Goliath since it is the Word of the Spirit of YHWH that is the sword that overcomes all who oppose the reign of YHWH and his son Y'Shua.

What this dream does tell me is that if I continue to deal with the powers behind the powers in the spiritual realm, I will be dealing with the Nazi SS regime as its sacred army backed by the Jesuit/Rosicrucian priesthood as sanctioned by the Merovingian royal houses of Europe.
