

Satanic Standing Stones: Dream

The Dream

Many years ago while still living in Scotland, I had a dream where I found my self on a great desolate plain. There was no growth on the plain and the time of day was near darkness. As I looked around this great plain that extended farther than the eyes could see, I saw single standing stones scatted as far as the eye could see all facing different directions.

The wind then was heard and as it passed across the face of these stones, it made a kind of eery music. I noticed that each of the stone had 4 gouges on one of its wide faces and as the wind passed by these gouges, it played a 4-note tone like blowing across the top of a soda bottle.

Then I saw people wandering around the great plain. I did not know where they came from but they were every where. As the wind blew across the stones near them, the people would suddenly go into a trance and stiffen up like robots and then moved together in a common direction as if controlled by some 'guidance' contained in the music. As the wind shifted, other groups of stones and people would then come under the power of the Satanic stones.

Even I was drawn to the sounds of the stones but was able to block my mind from its power of control by appealing to the forgiveness of Y'Shua. I then awoke.

The 4 Powers of Satanic Control

Upon awakening, I asked YHWH what were these 4 gouges in the stones that played the 4 notes that overcame anyone near the stones to turn them into robots. I was told by YHWH that the 4 gouges in the stones were 1) fear, 2) anger, 3) hatred and 4) destruction or murder. Any soul who has this 'root of bitterness' still in their hardened hearts will become easy prey for the satanic winds of the Antichrist regime. The stones were the hearts of recognized leaders and the others around them were their subordinates. When leadership was sounded by the satanic winds, the others around them would blindly follow without even knowing what was happening.

To be free from this Antichrist control, we have to repent of holding any fear, anger, hatred or the desire to destroy anyone who has ever offended us. If we do not do this, we will become the army of Satan without even knowing what we are doing.

The scriptures tell us to "free ourselves from the root of bitterness in our hearts for from such many [Christians] have become defiled" and lost their relationship with YHWH through Y'Shua.
