

Trumpet of RA: Dream

by David Michael, info@glentivar.org

Real Event – Not a Dream

On the night of October 3rd, 2012, I was suddenly awakened by the sound of a loud trumpet coming from the hill about 1000' to the East of Glentivar on a hill in Pike National Forest. I shot up in bed and listened wondering what would happen next.

I was suddenly overcome with fear as if I had been caught unprepared for battle with the enemy forces already down upon me. I then heard the words "Trumpet of Ra" and then knew what army had come to the hill to the East overlooking Glentivar Village prepared to wage battle against the few of us then living at Glentivar.

I immediately went into prayer to battle against this invading army who had come to overcome Glentivar. Quickly the fear subsided as faith took hold within me and I then knew the victory was ours.

Angelic Protection

I have known for some time that a contingent of the army of Michael the Archangel were deployed around Glentivar. They were seen one night by a woman who stayed at Glentivar and she saw about 120 giant warrior angels grouped into 5 companies on the hill to the north overlooking Glentivar. They were giant angels dressed in full battle armor with shields and swords.

These angels were tasked to provide protection to the faithful residing at Glentivar. As we act in faith, angels are then able to battle on our behalf. If we fear, they are unable to help us.

At the time when I had this dream, Lynda Von Habsburg was in retreat at Glentivar who is the Papal crowned Empress of the Holy Roman Empire. She would be an obvious target for Ra's alien armies who would seek to bring her under his regime if she were willing to pay fealty to Ra and to bring with her the other royal houses of the Empire also under his domain. I say alien because Ra is of a race the Sumerians called the Anunnaki which means the "Gods who came down."

Creation of a Man Species

Ra also known as Marduk among the Sumerians is the royal son of Enki and he the royal son of Anu, who was the first recorded Emperor of the Anunnaki Empire by the Sumerians. It is my understanding that Ra has been granted the right by royal succession to become 'god' over earth because it is believed as stated in the Sumerian writings that some of the species of earth's humanoids (man) were created by his father Enki as a slave race to mine gold for the Anunnaki in Africa and Mesopotamia. It makes legal sense that the son of this 'creator' of a man species has the right to subdue and rule over what he has created.

Be assured the biblical Adam in the Garden of Eden was not a part of this creation but a completely new creation made in the image and likeness of YHWH and then isolated and protected in a walled garden called Eden.

The line of Adam created by YHWH would become the dynasty of priest-kings to rule over all of the earth – Adam being the first of the Melchizedek priesthood. David was also a Melchizedek priest as was Y'Shua (Jesus) of this Order and due to his birthright and his obedience now rules over all creation.

Nibiru, December 21st, 2012 and the Holy Roman Empire

This people of the Anunnaki are the inhabitants of Nibiru or Planet X that passes near earth now once about every 2000-3600 years with the cycle of return increasing each time. It is believed the axis of earth is altered every 2nd passing with 2008-2017 being the second passing in this cycle.

This could put the last passing around the time when Abraham was called to leave Ur and establish the Hebrew Nation. The passing before this is when the pre-Sumerian Empire was founded from which the history of the Anunnaki was recorded.

Roman Authority

The transfer of the rule of the Roman Empire to the Roman Catholic Church occurred in 538 AD. Ten kingdoms were given to the Roman Church by Caesar with three of these kingdoms being wiped out by the Roman Church because they would not become Roman Catholics.

The remaining seven kingdoms include what became England, Switzerland, Germany, France, Portugal, Spain and Italy which are the seven kings over 10 kingdoms prophesied to come in the Book of Revelation as the regime of the Antichrist.

The three lost kingdoms were absorbed by Rome and their power was given to the Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire in 800 AD with Charlemagne becoming the first Emperor over the three and also over the other seven kings. Ra seeks to rule over them all.

Merovingian Dynasty

The Merovingian Dynasty was created (perhaps assisted by Anunnaki instructions) in having the Franks marry into the female line of King David which was later blessed by the Roman Church in 800 AD with the crowning of Charlemagne.

Karl Von Hapsburg has this title today and has recently been proclaimed the King of Jerusalem by Pope Benedict. The Holy Roman Empire never died or was disbanded but secretly lives on today fully backed by the Roman Catholic Church.

In his abounding grace, YHWH also made a provision in preserving the male line of the royal house of King David that will arise in these last days to counter the claims of the Holy Roman Empire and its associated royal houses. These Davidic armies of the royal line of King David will rally their forces against the regime of the Antichrist with the final battle at Armageddon. More on this in book 2 of this series.

Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

The planet group of Nibiru with its dark sun has passed its closest point near earth on the 21st of December when the Mayan calendar ends. This was not the end of the world as some have assumed but a time of great spiritual and physical transition for earth and its inhabitants.

I believe between 2012 and 2015 (2017 at the latest) we will see the rise of the 4-Horsemen of the Apocalypse that will be a series of events that will bring the whole world under a single government. This is already happening in some respects as national economies are now failing all over the world.

The White Horse of the Apocalypse designs a plan for the world to remedy a global economic collapse which is already near happening.

The Red Horse of the Apocalypse will bring war to opposing nations who are not willing to give up their sovereignty and follow this plan of economic and political globalization.

The Black Horse of the Apocalypse will emerge to control all food, water and other natural resources offering only subsistence rations to the workers committed to this New World Order.

The Dappled horse of the Apocalypse will bring death to millions on the earth in reducing the worlds population by over 70 percent.

No Pre-Tribulation Rapture – Sorry!

This regime is a forerunner to the biblical Antichrist regime which reveals itself fully at the time when the Abomination of Desolation is placed in the newly built temple in Jerusalem in the middle of the 7 year Tribulation period. The Mark of the Beast will be imposed as people literally 'sell their souls' to the religion of the Beast in exchange for food, water and comfort.

Death camps will be set up all over the world to incarcerate protesters to the regime and systematically eliminate all resistance. The Nazi death camps will pale compared to what is coming.

The Church will not be 'raptured' before these events occur as many misguided ministers are preaching to millions. However, shortly after the Beast is set up in the Temple in Jerusalem, then will the armies of Messiah Y'Shua (Jesus) appear in the clouds of the air with Y'Shua leading them to war against the Antichrist regime and will then commit to protect the remaining remnant of the true Church.

What to Do?

As they said in Acts after hearing the word of God, "What shall we then do?"

I advise all to identify remote areas within 50 miles of where you live where you can get to within an hour's notice with food and provisions stored to last for many months. This is a Bug-Out plan to be ready when the Red and Black Horses of the Apocalypse are loosed upon the earth in enslaving the nations of the earth.

It would appear America will be used to enforce the Mark of the Beast first in America and then in the rest of the world. America is to become the 2-horned beast of Revelation after its collapse and pays homage to the seven headed 10-horned beast of the Holy Roman Empire in Europe. I can confidently say slavery will happen here in America first before it is seen in the rest of the world.

There is little time left to prepare for all that is coming upon us in America. I pray that you will be ready when it comes.
