

Warning the Empress of the Holy Roman Empire: Dream

by David Michael, info@glentivar.org

Mausoleum of Bondage

In a dream of the night of November 7th, 2012, I found myself in a wooded forest area looking for Lynda Von Hapsburg. She is the 'legal' wife of Karl Von Hapsburg who married her when she was 6 years old by the Roman Church who also crowned her the Empress of the Holy Roman Empire with the Empire crowns and triple anointing.

As I looked for her and calling her name in the forest, I came upon a group of people and asked them if they had seen her. A man of the group responded and said, "Lydia is in there" and pointed through the trees toward a white mausoleum like building set in the middle of the forest.

I did not know why they called her Lydia but went for the clearing and into the mausoleum. I found her lying face up and unclothed on a stone altar slab. She was in a semi-conscious state in the center of the mausoleum with a stone arched ceiling about 20' up. She was not dead but she was not able to speak to me when I called her name.

Misty Bog in France

Suddenly I found myself in a misty Bog in France just after the sun had gone down. It was getting dark but I could still see clearly.

As I scanned the bog, I noticed a man walking about looking for something. As I continued to watch him, he put down his hand deep into the miry bog to his elbows and pulled up a mummified head with body skin still attached to it.

It was grotesque looking, slimy wet from the bog and limp. He lifted the head and mouth of the mummy to his mouth and breathed in deeply. Immediately he changed in shape and grew into a large human like beast with distorted features now over 16' tall.

Beast-Man

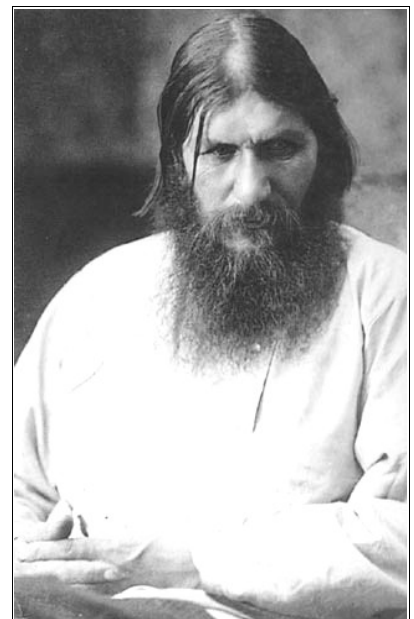

The beast-man then looked at me and boomed out in a very low voice, "See, there is still much power in this old thing. They have been waiting for nearly 300 years." I asked who is the mummy that he had pulled from the misty bog in France? He would not tell me immediately but after much coaxing, he said "Rasputin." I thought Rasputin lived less then 300 years ago and in Russia.... so how could this be?

While still seeking to understand still in a dream state, I was told by what seemed to be an Angel the demons of Napoleon were also in this mummy. I then understood that these spirits were to be taken by the beast-man to Lynda/Lydia and be breathed into her while she was on the altar that she might have them enable in her rise to power in the Holy Roman Empire. The dream then ended.

Analysis

Rasputin was an Orthodox monk and mystic and lived during the reign of the last Tzar of Russia, Peter II, just before the Russian Revolution. He was known for his control of the Russian monarchy through the use of witchcraft.

Napoleon was known for his ability at war and conquered most of Europe and attempted to conquer Russia and the Middle East. He lived during the last half of the 18th century. With the two of these spirits working together with their combined ability of war and witchcraft, few there would be in Europe or elsewhere who could resist 'Lydias' rise to power over Europe.

Lydia, Seller of Purple

The name Lydia is a person of the NT who was a converted from the gentile nation of Lydia also called Lud and helped out Paul. (Acts 16) She was a seller of purple by trade.

The only other reference in the bible to a woman and purple is the Harlot of the Antichrist Church who sits on many waters and is dressed in purple. She further seeks out the true Christians and kills them. (Revelation 17:4)

I have the suspicion if Lynda now named Lydia by the occult world is to become as seller of purple in the context of this dream. They plan to control her to become a seller of thrones and liturgical offices since purple represents the royal color of kings and bishops.

Empress Lynda Von Habsburg stayed here at Glentivar Village for a month very recently in 2012. As her long-time chaplain and bishop who ordained her a deaconess within the Orthodox Church, we had many long talks about her positive role in the Holy Roman Empire and the future coming of Messiah who is to be honored above all others.

Recently, conflict arose between us and I observed a deep fear, anger and hatred arise in her I had not seen before. This is sadly the root of bitterness that defiles Christians so they get turned over to Satan to become his people bound to do his bidding. I spoke about this with her before she left but she did not seem to be able to hear me.

Repent or Go into Slavery

This dream is a warning to her to turn away from her fears, anger and hatred against those who have tried to prevent her from ascending to her throne as the Empress of the Holy Roman Empire.

This is also a warning to any Christian to not give in to the urge to hold bitterness toward anyone so that you remain above the reproach and enslavement of the enemy. If we succumb to the root of bitterness, it will utterly destroy our faith in Messiah and it is then better we never became a Christian in the first place.

Read 2 Peter chapter 2 for more on this from Saint Peter.

Cycle of Enslavement

There is a cycle of power Satan used to enslave people. He first gets us to fear. It does not matter what - just any fear of anything will do as a start. It might be how to pay the rent or mortgage. It might be how to get food or fuel. It might be just finding a job. Any fear will do.

This fear turns into anger as we are not able to control our environment to resolve what we are fearing. Anger then consumes us and gives way to hate as we then identify those who we decide are the cause of our lack or need. This could be our spouse, the government, our employer or anyone who seems to have influence over the solution to meeting our need.

Finally hatred gives way to the spirit of murder and the desired destruction of those who have become the target of our hatred. We then try to undermine them or destroy their perceived ability to control us and our world which could end if unresolved end in murder. This cycle could end in the actual murder of another person.

When this cycle occurs runs its course, we become Satan's vassal who will do his bidding whenever he desires this of us. I can only advise all to run from the Root of Bitterness like the plague. It is a real plague that has destroyed many of faith over the centuries.
