

Elemental Angel of Fire: Visitation

by David Michel, info@glentivar.org

In the early morning of the 23rd of November, I had a visitation where an angel came to me and asked,

“May I be a part of your team?”

This angel was on fire as if this was his normal state. I thought for a moment and said to myself the only kind of team I am connected with is the elemental wind angels under Michael and this being is not a wind angel. I initially said no to the angel. I did not want to break protocol or the chain of command within the angelic armies of YHWH. I then thought, it is the wind that drives the fires in a forest fire so they do work together. I did not make a clear spoken answer of yes but then after reflection I did not say 'yes' and the angel understood.

The angel of fire who I later understood to be the Archangel Uriel then disappeared.

Why Ask Me?

As I awakened, I asked myself out loud, “Why would an elemental angel be asking me for permission to work with me?” Did not YHWH and Y'Shua have the command of all the angels and tell them what to do? Then I remembered that in a discussion with Michael the Archangel a few years ago, I was told the wind angels will be placed under my charge at certain times in the future. I understand this may be true for many of the prophets of YHWH who physically face off with the priests of the New World Antichrist Order in a battle of spiritual power.

I then mused that there are at least 4 elemental forces all with a hierarchy of angels empowering these natural forces of nature. These angels were assigned to these forces at the time of creation. These guardians of nature that I call elemental angels are given the task to assure nature's forces retain their order in doing good according to the precepts of YHWH. When deemed right by YHWH, they would bring judgment upon the earth against mankind as needed with fires, floods, earthquakes and destructive winds. With the fall of Adam, some of these elemental angels were compromised and many of them rebelled against the Kingdom of YHWH and aligned themselves with the usurping Kingdom of Lucifer or Satan.

Elijah vs. Evil Prophets

I was then led to read about when Elijah fled from Jezebel after killing the 450 prophets of Baal and the 450 prophets who worshiped the nature spirits of the groves. He found himself in the mountains hiding in a cave and in a moment of self pity told YHWH, “I am the last of the prophets left in Israel” to which YHWH said that “There are yet 7000 prophets in Israel who have not bowed the knee to Baal or kissed an idol.

Elements Not God

It seems Elijah was seeking assurance from YHWH that what he did was right and he was safe from Jezebel as this story unfolded in 1 Kings 18-19. As he was hiding in the cave, suddenly the winds then came and shook the mountain with rocks with dust flying everywhere but YHWH did not speak to Elijah through the wind. Fire then passed by the entrance of the cave yet YHWH did not speak to Elijah through the fire. Then the earth shook and again YHWH did not speak to Elijah through the earth quake either. The water of rain then fell in torrents. This was not God. YHWH then spoke to Elijah through a small still voice within his heart.

I then continued reading. Prior to these series of events, Elijah prayed and the drought ceased with the rising of a small cloud over the sea after many times praying. After each time praying, he sent his servant out to see if the rain was coming yet and it was the 7th time the cloud was seen by the servant. Elijah then sent his servant to King Ahab to tell him the drought was over. In this tutorial of YHWH provided to Elijah, all four of the elements were presented to Elijah not as an expression of YHWH but as forces of nature or elemental angels of the wind, fire, earth and finally water in the coming of rain.

Deciding Alliances

I continued to pray and meditate on this visitation and finally understood that all four groups of the elemental angels including the wind, earth, water and fire have to decide who they will pay fealty to as we approach the final battle called Armageddon. By then, there will be no fence sitting for any part of creation. All of these forces of nature may be used for good or for evil depending on who these elemental angels follow. Once they finally decide between YHWH and Satan, there is no turning back for them since they too will be taking the Mark of the Beast in a more spiritual sense if they choose the path of rebellion with Satan.

Archangels of Judgment

Finally, I am realizing the army of YHWH will be composed of all of the elemental angels who have remained loyal to YHWH and have fully accepted his son Y'Shua as Lord, their Messiah and King over them. So far I understand the elemental angels to be under the leadership of the following archangels according the Enoch.

- Michael: General of the 4 winds – storms and freak winds.
- Uriel: General of fire – fires, volcanic and meteors.
- Gabriel: General of earth – earthquakes.
- Raphael: General of water – floods, tsunamis, etc.

I am assured these 4 Archangels will work in concert under the command of King Y'Shua together as wind, fire, earth and water to bring the Antichrist regime to its knees so it may be judged for all eternity for their rebellion.
