

Meeting Hawaiian Queen: Dream

by David Michael, info@glentivar.org

In the early morning of the 20th of May 2106, I found myself in a run down part of town that I later discovered was in Hawaii. The town was being ravaged by raptors who would run the streets and attack and kill people without mercy. As I was making my way through town, I saw a raptor and hid until it passed. I then made my way to a house my dad was building on the beach next to an Old Stone Church in Kona on the Big Island of Hawaii. It had a very large main room like a Hawaiian styled ballroom suitable for large parties and civil events.

Two streets down a raptor had attacked so I quickly made it to my dad's now unfinished house and we closed the double gates as protection. The house was actually a fenced in compound with 12' high fences. I grew up in Hawaii for 35 years so Hawaii is home for me. I have seen no such properties in the Kona where this dream occurred.

As we were waiting for the raptor threat to pass, a large Hawaiian man leaped up over the roof and went out into a corral area in the compound and just stood there. One of the workers said he could take him and went out into the corral and within 15 seconds, the worker was defeated. Others tried and were also defeated. He then stood at the edge of the corral waiting for another challenger and held before him a very large shield of many colors with a crest I did not recognize but after an internet search is similar to the Hawaiian royal crest in a shield as seen above.

I then went into the corral and said humbly I wanted to work out whatever was the issue with the Hawaiian man.

Suddenly the gates opened and a Rolls Royce followed by other vehicles entered the compound. Out stepped a middle aged Hawaiian woman. She was dressed in a white muumuu and was a very good looking woman – very similar in looks to Princess Ka'iulani but older.

Our First Meeting

She then told me the story of her camping in the old stone church ruins without a roof when we moved to the Islands in the early 1970's. She was then a child about 8 and I remembered her and her mother. I am now age 60. I remember her Hawaiian mother claimed she was the heir to the throne of Hawaii. This part of the dream I have had before in the past over the last 40 years.

She went on to say she and her mother “were forced out into the streets from living at the old stone church” implying we had done this. I then said “I was only 15 when meeting you but did remember you.” I then added, “I do not remember you and her mother being forced out into the streets by us.” Perhaps this was symbolic in this dream?

My dad did get use of the old stone church as its pastor of the Hawaiian Congregational church and rebuilt it into what it is today but this was some years later. Perhaps the rebuilding of the old church was also a symbolic effort in seeking to rebuild the right to Hawaiian sovereignty under YHWH as the true God of righteousness.

She then said, "I have been looking for you all of my life." I was puzzled. Since that time, I have been ordained Syro-Chaldean (Papal Prelature - deacon), Episcopal (priest) and then Orthodox (bishop). I continue to have a love for Hawaii and its people as my home.

German Duke

I then looked to my left and there sat a man in royal regalia uniform with medals with sections of armor on his formal coat like that worn by German royals of the 19th century past. We together were sitting in an open carriage used by royals as pulled by horses. How it got into the compound without me noticing it, I will never know. We introduced ourselves by first names only and said hello. He did not seem to be the King of Hawaii but his attire suggested he was very high up in the German government – perhaps a duke. He could have even been a King elsewhere in the world but this subject was never mentioned. I seemed to know him in the dream since we only used first names so likely it was a Habsburg royal.

Queen of Hawaii

The woman then came over and sat next to me and put her arm around me and just held me. I found this very comforting but somewhat informal. Yes... I loved her from when she was a child but I did not expect this informality from a Queen. I was not sure what to call her but all appearances suggested to me she was the rightful Queen of Hawaii. She then said her maiden [birth/family] name was Jennifer Heinrich. The name Heinrich is not normally a last name but a first name among Germans since Heinrich is Henry in English. The literal meaning of Heinrich is very important in this dream.

Heinrich comes from the French Henri [Henry], from the German Heinrich, which is from the Old High German Haganrih (ruler of an enclosure), a compound name composed from the elements hag (an enclosure, a hedging-in) and rihi (ruler), and from the Old High German Heimerich (home ruler), a compound name composed from the elements heim (home) and rik (ruler, king). The name, introduced by the Normans and borne by eight English kings, took the English vernacular form of Harry until the 17th century, when Henry became popular and Harry was used as the pet form.

I was puzzled that she had a German name when looking so very much Hawaiian. She must have had an influential German ancestor in her family tree. Or if this name is simply given for its meaning, it is to verify she is the ruler of an enclosure (Kingdom) or the rightful "Home Ruler" of the Kingdom of Hawaii as Queen. Certainly she is the ruler of our enclosure in the dream represented as a compound in that her warrior defeated all challengers who came against her shield of royal honor. This compound also provided protection from the raptors.

Her first name given as Jennifer is also very important and comes from the era of King Arthur.

The name Jennifer is an Arthurian Legend baby name. In Arthurian Legend the meaning of the name Jennifer is: Fair one. Guinevere was King Arthur's mythological queen and was the Fair one of the Kingdom of Camelot.

In both cases the names together means: "a fair [beautiful and righteous] home ruler as queen/king."

Some thoughts

The German connection is important since the German Empire of the 19th century recognized the sovereign rights of the throne and Kingdom of Hawaii with a Trade Treaty. Some argue that this treaty is still in effect or valid with the rightful continuing Kingdom of Hawaii. The fact that the Duke was dressed as a royal suggests this event happens when the German people have returned to a monarchy and then provides military assistance to enable the Hawaiian people to return to a monarchy.

The most likely family to regain the throne in Germany and Austria is the Habsburg family and the duke was likely from this family as a military ally. He could have been Karl Von Habsburg who is the current Duke and Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire. I have been served among his distant family for years as a personal chaplain.

US Government Raptors

The raptors represent the dark elements of destruction that continue to plague the people of Hawaii. These lethal killers represent the curse that is upon Hawaii that needs to be lifted with places of safety with a "fair and righteous home rule" returned to the Hawaiian people. The "Life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness" is the motto of the Kingdom of Hawaii and now the State of Hawaii. It is well known the sovereignty of the Hawaiian people was forcibly taken illegally and unrighteously by US commercial interests assisted by the US Marines in the 19th century. Even the election for US Statehood was illegal. It may be said their current captor are represented in this dream as vicious blood spilling raptors and they are none other than US commercial interests backed by the US Federal Government now perpetuated by the State Government.

I have a sense this is an event yet to happen sometime in the near future. The Kingdom of Hawaii in alliance with the Royal House of Germany seems to be the notable turning point for the rise of the Hawaiian monarchy.

When I met the Queen as a child, her and her mother were homeless. The child once left to die in the streets is now to become the Queen of Hawaii.
