

Sons of Prophets: Dream

by David Michael, info@glentivar.org

In the early morning of the 2nd of February 2017, I found myself camping in a desert. It must have been near water since the trees were not stunted and there was underbrush that included grass not normally found in dry desert areas. The camp was more a camp of canvas tents and tarps that were spread between trees or on short poles like found among the nomads of the Middle East with sleeping underneath on the ground.

In the dream, I was being visited by other prophets - about 5 of them and a few of them had wives with them. There were no vehicles yet animals were heard as burden animals like donkeys, mules, horses and smaller meat animals like goats. We all sat near a fire and cooked what seemed like bread on sticks. Perhaps it was a kind of bible bread that was life sustaining. Life could not be simpler or more pure.

I then stood up and said, "Thank you for returning to this site as the annual gathering of the Sons of Prophets." I then stood up and embraced each of them as brothers.

We then talked. I noticed in the dream each of us had a prayer shawl with fringe attached to the 4 corners. It was not fancy like the Jewish ones but a simple thicker cloth more like a small blanket so it had a functional use for warmth in the cold nights in the desert as well as being used in prayer. In this gathering, we shared what YHWH was doing, prayed for each other, sought new direction for the coming year and sang in worship to YHWH. It was a time of fellowship and spiritual refreshment.

The dream then ended.

Upon awakening, I sensed the location was somewhere near the hot Wells Dunes in Arizona. The gathering time was in the Hebrew new year in the Spring. The length of the gathering was unknown but could have been as long as a month during the Passover period. This would place it on the following dates below for 2017.

It is very possible this is to become an annual event of the Passover in the gathering of the Sons of Prophets and would begin on April 10th in 2017 with the 11th being day one of Passover week with the ending on the 17th of April (Monday) with the formal Passover meal. Passover ends at sundown.

The use of tents rather than RV's in this dream suggests this is a time when vehicles may not be the best means of travel but a better and safer means of travel for prophets is by draft animal. This limits what can be carried and the reason for tents and the simple meal. This event would only be 2.5 months away from this today February 2 as the date of the dream. It appears this is to occur and I have been given sufficient notice to make the arrangements and send out the invitations to the Sons of Prophets for this Holy week gathering and feast.
