

Three Knights of YHWH: Dream

Religious Cult

In the early morning of the 22 of December 2016, I found myself among a large group of people in the mountains. These mountains were very wooded with large evergreens and in a mountainous area. This places the event between Montana and the Northwest region of America. This appeared to be a village of people who had gathered together in seeking protection from the evils of society.

Among this group of religious people my older sister Kathryn was counted. I was visiting among them and they found themselves in duress. I do not know the reason why but their way of seeking remedy from this was to seek to identify those among them who had broken from the faith and were allowing the devil to be among them. This fear stirred the group into a mob with emotions running high. They then began to hunt down the alleged culprit of evil among them.

Sister Accused to be a Witch

My sister was chosen to be the evil one and accused as being a witch. I tried to reason with them stating that her only sin is that she was following the true Hebrew Christian faith given to us by Y'Shua. They would not listen. She was tied to a tree and her execution was scheduled for the next morning on Sunday during their service.

I knew I must return with a force who could free her from her blind captures to spare her from a horrific death. I was camping in the woods about a mile away and praying for reinforcements as I left. Upon arriving to my camp, I met two men traveling together who were knights with horses with full armor and weapons. I too was a knight in this dream and had a horse, armor and weapons. I seemed to recognize the two knights but could not place them. These two men were the most noble knights I have ever heard of or known.

Angelic Knights

Strangely, they had lived hundreds of years ago in history. I questioned if they were human. Could they be angels like the angels that attended Melchizedek [Shem] on his way to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah? They came up to me and said they would fight with me in taking up the honorable quest of freeing my sister from this deadly religious cult. We then settled in for the night and I slept.

Early the next morning at sunup, we were near a pond. We were preparing for battle and washing in the pond symbolically to purify our souls that YHWH might give us favor in battle. Each of us prayed to YHWH for protection.

Rules of Engagement

I was then asked what were the rules of engagement. Should the offenders be just battered or killed. To be battered would suggest the mace whereas death by bloodletting suggests sword and lance. I said they should be just battered and not killed. I then realized guns might be brought to the battle since it is the 21st century. We had bows and arrows and decided all those who carried guns would be quickly killed without mercy as we hid in the trees.

My white horse was out grazing. I prayed for my horse to return and then saw him running with the two other horses – another white horse and a black horse. They were coming our way as if they could sense it was time to return and prepare for battle. We dressed for battle in armor keeping mostly silent in a meditative state of mind. We knew it was YHWH who would have to win the battle. We mounted and rode toward the village who held my sister judged for death. We knew the Lord was with us.

The dream then ended.

Analysis

My initial analysis is that three warriors will be gathered by YHWH as a strike team and sent on special missions to save the faithful of YHWH who keep his laws and precepts – particularly the true Sabbath. It is possible I have already met these angels who are assigned to me. I know them by name.

Our weapons are NOT conventional weapons but primarily spiritual reflected in the armor of YHWH. The bows and arrows are not real but the forces of nature directed in judgment against the evil doers. The strike of wind and fire are the arrows.

Our initial attack is to be stealthy to remove the satanic gatekeepers who blind the people and then to disable the mob forces keeping them alive so they might still repent of their evil ways. This holy strike team may be operational by the middle of March 2017 of this year when the world is turned over to the Luciferian powers to then bring judgment upon their own mob of slaves and servants. Millions will die all over the world when this occurs.
