

Antichrist Castle

The Castle

In the early morning of the 25th of March 2017, I found myself with a few others in a kingdom that may have been in Germany or Bavaria. It was the principal city of the Antichrist and was protected by his Nephilim guards. The main castle was surrounded by a city that extended for miles in all directions – as far as the eye could see. The city was very ornate and it was clear there was no lack in this place or among its people.

Virgins Captured

I then saw many young women being brought to the main castle tied by their hands. They were there to fulfill the pleasures of many in the service of the King, Nobles and the Nephilim guards. It seems these virgin women had been chosen from their youth for this service as their names were known by the guards. The women went through a screening process and if found worthy, they were given a necklace and passports and told, “These will let you go anywhere.”

These women went through a sorting process and only the women who had exceptional spiritual talents were offered to the king and nobles of this kingdom with the rest being given to the guards. They came as virgins but they would not remain as virgins for long.

Friend Captured

We were visitors to the castle where parts of it were open to the public. We ate in a large cafeteria in the castle and then continued our adventure. I have reason to believe this is a real place on earth – perhaps sometime in the future. We came upon a room, peeked through the door and found the women being sorted into groups to determine who they would serve. Suddenly, the name of my woman friend was yelled out and the Nephilim guards shot up from their posts and came after her. They captured her and held her with guards all around her. She could neither fight nor escape from them.

Soon I still peeking through the door saw the King came to her and said “I have been waiting for you.” She then received a necklace from the King and upon this being around her neck, she as a warrior hating the evils of the Antichrist then became obedient to his commands and passionate in fulfilling his desires.

Search for the Sword of Goliath

I knew I needed to save her and knew I would be fighting the Nephilim to do so. I then went upon a search for the Sword of Goliath that I had been told in an earlier encounter was to be used “for the killing of the Nephilim.” I managed to find my way into a museum artifact room of the castle and began looking for this sword. This room was adjacent to the guards quarters with a window between the two. I was noticed and told by one of the guards to identify myself. I simple said I got lost in the castle. This seemed to remedy their concerns and they focused again on a bed with an honored guard who was sick near death.

I came over and looked into his eyes of this near death guard. He noticeably recognized me with fear in his eyes but could not speak or move much due to his illness. I then knew he knew what I was there for but not who I was. He must have been one of their psychically gifted who led them into battle to win in knowing the decisions and actions of the enemy before they were confronted in battle. I was the enemy standing among them but the others did not yet realize this. My identify had been cloaked by the Holy Spirit so I was able to move freely among the Nephilim guards.

I then being recognized by this dying guard which caused some stir among the others let the Holy Spirit flow out of me (cloak removed) and I was suddenly lifted into the air and floated backwards away from them. I then immediately found myself outside of the castle in a forested area away from the castle.

I did not find the sword but I knew it must be found to save the virgin warrior who was my friend and the others now under mind control. This encounter of the night while I slept then ended.

Thoughts

What then is the Sword of Goliath that now twice I have been shown will be found “for the killing of the Nephilim?” Is it real or metaphoric? I still am not sure as there was and perhaps still is the original Sword of Goliath somewhere yet to be found. King David used this sword to later kill the Nephilim in battle during his reign over both Israel and Judah.

What is somewhat clear to me is the virgins are the true church and they have been known from their beginning by name as religious movements led by religious men that became denominations. It is these virgins that he has claimed as his own to personally defile in making them the whores of the King, Nobles and Guards of this Antichrist regime.

The church today is the whore of the Antichrist who has given them free access to all of his kingdom and wealth in exchange for their obedience and devotion. Most all of the well known ministers today have become the whores of Satan with the Jesuits assisting the Nephilim in sorting and bringing them into the Antichrist castle.

These Nephilim are real Nephilim born of the seed of fallen angels impregnating human women. They are a hybrid species and are not human but look human. Those who claim the Nephilim were all removed by the Great Flood are wearing the necklace of obedience given to them by the Antichrist regime. Do not listen to them or follow them. They will lead you to death and destruction even though their words seem sweet in the mouth. In the belly, their words and teaching become sour and bring death.
